

Diversity through the Eyes of Women

Join us for a series of dynamic discussions surrounding Pittsburgh's changing cultural landscape, featuring local women leaders.

Latino Community Panel Discussion

Wednesday, May 18th

5:30—7:00 PM

Point Park University

Rosamaria Cristello, Director of Latino Family Center

Betty Cruz, Deputy Chief of Special Initiatives in the Office of Mayor William Peduto

Gisele Fetterman, First Lady of Braddock and Founder of the Braddock Free Store

Moderator: Angélica Ocampo, President and CEO of the World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh

Upcoming Panel Discussion in this Series

African-American Community: Monday, June 6th at 5:30 PM

This series will continue in the fall with panel discussions addressing many more of Pittsburgh's culturally diverse communities.

Events in this series are free, but registration is required.
Register now at www.worldpittsburgh.org, or by calling 412-281-7970.