

In a world of constant news headlines about global security threats, it can seem impossible to make sense of the confusing and frightening information that comes our way. The ability to understand the global trends that will have the most impact on Americans and our security is one of the most daunting challenges.

Introducing

Global Issues Mini-Course

This three-part course will address topics including:
Interpreting and Managing Chinese and Russian Global Influence
Countering Political Violence around the World
Robotics and Increasing Autonomy in Military and Civilian Settings

Take a deep dive into international relations and key national security concerns through this mini-course taught by experts from the RAND Corporation. Small group discussions supported by pre-readings will facilitate and enhance your understanding of these critical issues.

Mini-Course Details

Tuesday, January 17th
Tuesday, February 21st
Tuesday, March 28th

From 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

@ RAND Corporation (Oakland)

WAC Members: $90
RAND Policy Circle and RANDNext: $90
Non-Members: $150

Register online
worldpittsburgh.org or call 412-281-7970

*Registration fee covers attendance to all three sessions in this mini course.
Light appetizers will be served.*