Who sponsors the World Affairs Institute?
The Institute is sponsored by Rotary International and the World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh. This year’s Institute marks the 48th year of collaboration between the Council and Rotary International.

What is the objective of the Institute?
The Institute engages high school student leaders in a discussion of key issues in international affairs so that they can understand and think critically about their world.

How is the conference structured?
Through panel presentations and an experiential learning activity, experts will discuss key issues with the student delegates. Each student will have access to a comprehensive overview of the topic prior to the Institute.

Who can attend the Institute?
All high school students are eligible to attend. Students can register independently or be selected as a scholarship recipient by local Rotary Clubs (Districts 6650, 7280, 7300, and 7330) or school districts.

How much does it cost to attend the Institute?
The fee of $75 for each student delegate and chaperone covers the cost of registration, educational materials, all conference sessions, lunch, and refreshments. To register, please visit the www.worldpittsburgh.org/wai2018.

Am I eligible for a scholarship?
Each Rotary Club or school district determines and pays for the number of scholarships it is sponsoring. Please contact your local Rotary Club, Interact Club, or school district to see if scholarships are available.

About Rotary International
Rotary International is a worldwide organization of more than 1.2 million business, professional, and community leaders. Its mission is to provide service to others, promote integrity, and advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through its fellowship of business, professional, and community leaders.
