22nd ANNUAL SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS

A Shifting World: Key Global Issues

JUNE 25 - 26, 2019
8:30 AM - 2:30 PM
Duquesne University

This Institute is made possible in part through the generous support of the Henry C. Frick Educational Fund of The Buhl Foundation
Tuesday, June 25, 2019

8:00 a.m. Registration and Breakfast

8:30 a.m. Welcome and Introduction

8:45 a.m. Global Migration, Immigration, and Asylum
          Brenda Green, Jewish Family and Community Services

10:30 a.m. Panel Discussion: Global Voices in Pittsburgh
          Feyisola Alabi, Welcoming Pittsburgh, Office of Mayor William Peduto
          Natasha Garrett, PhD, La Roche University
          Marian Lien, Governor Wolf’s Advisory Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs
          Ivonne Smith-Tapia, University of Pittsburgh

12:00 p.m. Luncheon discussion with panelists in small groups

1:00 p.m. The Global Refugee Crisis: Meeting Needs in Humanitarian Assistance, Education, and Jobs
          Shelly Culbertson, RAND Corporation

2:30 p.m. Adjournment

Wednesday, June 26, 2019

8:00 a.m. Registration and Breakfast

8:30 a.m. China-U.S. Relations: What is Next?
          Dennis Unkovic, Esq., Meyer, Unkovic & Scott LLP; Attorney and Author of Asia Ascending

9:45 a.m. Cybersecurity and Cryptocurrency
          Dr. William Scherlis and Dr. Nicolas Christin, Institute for Software Research, Carnegie Mellon University

11:10 a.m. Britain, the EU, and US-UK Trade
          Ben Brierley, British Consulate General of New York

12:30 p.m. Lunch and learn: presentations and discussions with representatives from Duolingo, Classrooms Without Borders, and Global Links

1:45 p.m. Curriculum Ideation Session

2:30 p.m. Adjournment